What does it take to be a valedictorian?

To be named the valedictorian, a student must be on the high honor roll all through middle school and currently have the highest academic performance in the 8th grade.

But there is more to it than that.....

- It's not just about doing what you were asked to do, but sometimes taking control of the situation and doing what needs to be done.
- It's not about complaining over a task, but challenging yourself to do the best for any task.
- It's about always giving it 100%, no matter how boring, how tiring, or how unnecessary a task may be.
- It's about showing respect to the entire MHMS staff, the student body, and the parents at all times.

The Valedictorian is selected by the Middle School Staff and the MHMS Administration.
